Are you passionate about the labor movement and wondering how you can promote economic justice for Oregon workers?

We're hiring a staff member based in our Portland office to help:

- Spearhead outreach and promotions for Labor Center activities, events, and research
- Connect unions and community-based organizations to the Labor Center
- Manage our website, email blasts, and social media
- Plan logistics and on-site coordination for trainings, conferences, and special events

If you're committed to building power for working people and have the necessary skills, we hope you'll take the time and effort to apply for this great position in our Portland office!
